

Mike Lipson

6 Village Green Lane, Apt. 23
Natick, MA 01760

860.268.3956

themikelipson@gmail.com
www.mikelipson.com

Profile

I'm a certified Instructional Technology specialist, public school teacher, convention speaker, audio engineer and software developer. I specialize in quest- and game-based learning.

Experience

Instructional Technology Specialist, Natick High School; Natick, MA – 2010 - Present

- Designed original and innovative quest-based curriculum
- Created and taught blended courses on technology topics
- Designed and administered technology training workshops for teachers
- Advised administration on LMS application selection and best practices

Game Design Teacher, TEC Online Academy; Dedham, MA – 2013 - Present

- Taught original, student-centered online courses in Game Design
- Administered courses in ItsLearning and other LMS applications

Technology Teacher, Hopkinton High School; Hopkinton, MA – 2009–2011

- Taught Radio Production, Web Design and Java Programming
- Provided computer and technical assistance for faculty and staff

Education

Master of Educational Technology, 4.0 GPA

Boise State University; Boise, ID - 2014 (Anticipated)

Bachelor of Music: Sound Recording Technology, 3.7 GPA

University of Massachusetts Lowell; Lowell, MA - 2008

Related Experiences

Convention Speaker: Education Gamification, PAX East (2013)

Workshop Presenter: Quest-Based Learning, Natick Technology Conference (2010 - Present)

Department Representative, Faculty Senate (2013 - 2014)

Projects

Countdown Sync: Countdown Timer Web Application, 1000+ Users

Instructional Videos: Educational YouTube Channel, 20k+ Views

Skills

Gamification

Technology Training

Learning Management Systems

Instructional Writing

HTML/CSS/JavaScript

Quest-Based Learning

Blended Learning

Instructional Design

Technical Writing

Web Applications

References Available Upon Request